The Star Thrower

Once upon a time there was a wise woman who used to go to the ocean to do her writing.

She had a habit of walking on the beach before she began her work.

One day she was walking along the shore.

As she looked down the beach,
she saw a human figure moving like a dancer.

She smiled to herself to think of someone who would dance to the day.

So she began to walk faster to catch up.

As she got closer, she saw that it was a young woman
And, the young woman wasn't dancing,
but instead she was reaching down to the shore, picking up something and very gently throwing it into the ocean.

As she got closer she called out,
"Good morning! What are you doing?"

The young woman paused, looked up and replied,
"Throwing starfish in the ocean."

"I guess I should have asked,
why are you throwing starfish in the ocean?"

"The sun is up and the tide is going out.
And if I don't throw them in they'll die."

"But, young lady, don't you realize that there are miles and miles of beach and starfish all along it.
You can't possibly make a difference!"

The young woman listened politely.

Then bent down, picked up another starfish
and threw it into the sea,

past the breaking waves and said-
"It made a difference for that one."
